propriate place in the Executive Branch where he could receive definite information on East-West trade and Battle Act Enforcements, I informed him that his calls should be to Mr. Kenneth Hansen in the Office of the Director of Mutual Security. Prior to informing Mr. Kamerick of this information (which had been coordinated with Messrs. Becker and Amory) I informed of my meeting with Mr. Kamerick and the information the latter desired, and he agreed that he was the man to whom 25X1A the request should be addressed.
